TEXT: John 14:1-3 (KJV) “Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. ²In my Father’s house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. ³And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.”

INTRO: Here in John chapter fourteen Jesus is conditioning His Disciples to the fact that He will be leaving them very soon. One of the things He say’s to them which was specifically designed to bring cheer to their hearts and smiles to their faces is the promise, “I will come again.” More than twenty centuries have come and gone and when I read those words it develops hope in my heart and causes a smile to break out on my face!

This world is in big trouble but let me explain to you that everything is working according to Gods calendar! A lot of people want to know what is about to happen and tonight I want to take a few minutes to tell you exactly what is about to transpire! (PANORAMA OF PROPHECY) (PLACE ON THE SCREEN ONE AT A TIME)

One of the great heroes of American history is a man who was born and raised in Little Rock, Arkansas; his name is General Douglas McArthur. During World War II, his leadership ability came to the forefront as he was placed in charge of the South Pacific Theatre and was stationed in the Philippines.

During the later days of the war, General McArthur's men had taken a beating so he withdrew them and moved them to Australia to recover. As he boarded the DC 9 in the Philippine it was obvious to General McArthur that the Philippine population was anxious about their future.

*Standing there noticing the fear and anxiousness on the faces of the Philippine people he spoke three words that have been immortalized in American history, "I shall return!"

Several months of war continued but one day the Philippine skies were filled with the hum of military planes as General McArthur made good on his promise to return to the Philippines!

A little over 2,000 years ago, Jesus stood on a mountain over-looking that wonderful city of Jerusalem and said to his beloved disciples, John 14:1-3 (NKJV) "Let not your heart be troubled; you believe in God, believe also in Me. ²"In My Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. ³"And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to Myself; that where I am, there you may be also.”

Sure things get tough at times:

- The body hurts...
- The spirit becomes weak...
- The mind is conflicted...
- The pain persists...
- The trauma continues...
- The worries never seem to end...
- The vision becomes faint...
- The path becomes darkened with care...

Take heart weary pilgrim, Jesus left a promise to “Come again!”

We cannot afford to: (PLACE ON THE SCREEN
ONE AT A TIME)

- Quit...
- Give up...
- Become discouraged...
- Think of turning back...

We must hold to Gods unchanging hand! His promises are absolutely accurate! He is coming again!

1 Thessalonians 4:13-18 (KJV) “But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope. ¹⁴For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. ¹⁵For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep. ¹⁶For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: ¹⁷Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. ¹⁸Wherefore comfort one another with these words."

1 Corinthians 15:51-58 (KJV) "Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, ⁵²In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. ⁵³For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. ⁵⁴So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory. ⁵⁵O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? ⁵⁶The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. ⁵⁷But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁵⁸Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord."

He did not leave us comfortless but He provides everything we need to make it through whatever we are called upon to endure!

ILLUSTRATION:

“The Wonderful Window.”

A London clerk worked in a run-down, drab, depressing, part of the city. This clerk refused to allow his outlook to determine his happiness so one day he bought a picture with an inspiring scene and installed it in the window of his office that overlooked the worst part of the city. The picture was of beautiful castles and towers, green rolling hills, beautiful parks and lovely homes. In the picture a Knight rode a stallion through the streets and watched over the people with pride.

As the clerk worked long hours at the tedious task of making everything balance he felt as though he was working for the Knight in the picture. This produced a sense of honor, dignity, and hope. As he looked at the picture of what could be rather than looking at what is, the picture changed his life!”

There is no need for us to allow our circumstances or surroundings discourage us! God has placed us where we are but He assured us He would “Come again!”
(PLAY RAPTURE VIDEO)

We need to quit looking at the drab scenes, and look at the promises He left us!
