

"WHOSE SON IS THIS?"

TEXT: I Samuel 17:55-58

INTRODUCTION: David is the youngest of the 8 son's of Jesse, the Bethlehemite.

David was by trade a shepherd, He kept the sheep of his father Jesse.

In our scripture setting we find that David's three oldest brothers Eliab, Abinadab, and Shammah, have gone off to battle in the army of Israel!

David, at the command of his father brings ~~some~~ bread and parched corn to his brethren! I don't think Jesse experienced too much difficulty convincing this youngster to go down to the battle-field!

David comes to the battle-field probably expecting to find Israel prevailing over the Philistines, but what he finds is an army in retreat!

Now remember David is one of the 8 son's of Jesse, and out of 8 son's Jesse now has 4 who are on the frontline of the battle!

Jesse must have been one of the "worst" fathers to be able to raise a boy like David.

Mister I want, you know that the most important job you have is to be the father to your children.

I want us to look at some traits of this man David, that I believe can be traced back to Jesse!

1. David Respected His Brothers

A. Notice verse 22, "David left his carriage in the hand of the keeper of the carriage, and ran into the army, and came and saluted his brethren."

We have raised a generation of young people who can't even spell respect let alone possess it!

We've raised the rudest generation of kids our world has ever seen!

rj I can tell what, you think of me, by the way you're children treat me! (Monkey see, monkey do !)

B. Who's to blame? FATHER'S! Mister you are to be the head of your house!

church no questions asked.
You ought to be the one to say we are going to // Proverbs 22: 15 "Foolishness is bound in the heart of a child but the rod of correction shall drive it far from him."

Many a boy have had their lives fall into shipwreck because mama's correction is all they ever got!

Prover1 5 s 13: 24 "He that spareth his rod hateth his son:
but he that loveth him chasteneth him betimes."

You say you love your child? Put your money where your mouth is!

Prove rbs 19: 18 "Chasten thy son while there is hope, and let not thy soul spare for his crying."

Proverbs 23: 13 "Withhold not correction from the child: for if thou beatest him with the rod, he shall not die."

Need I remind you that when Samuel went, to the house of Jesse to anoint a King, there was no back-talking and smart-mouthing, about who would go in first, It was done in an orderly fashion!

I believe it was done in an orderly fashion because Jesse had already established himself as the spiritual priest at his house!

Who's to blame for the loose living in this generation? I believe the fathers must bear the brunt of the responsibility for it!

Mister quit being a mouse and start being a man!

(Story of man ~~who~~ went to heaven, ~~two~~ lines,

B. henpecked line, and a line for men who were the boss .)

I believe you ought to be the one to have the final say as to what kind of clothing is modest or indecent.

But David isn't easily discouraged! Why? I believe 'ole are seeing a little trace of Jesse, commit I believe you ought to be the one with the final word on 'what time you're child will be in on Friday, and Saturday night!

What will your rebby turn out to be if h follows in your footsteps?

If I read my Bible right one day will give an account for these things, and you had better begin to reveal God for a sin who is about to strike here in the tough times

I believe Jesse was responsible for the great sense of respect, that was in David's life. The David wouldn't ever kill Saul when he had the chance! If that would have been some of our kids he'd been-a-goner!)

B.

IV. ~~DAVID KNEW WHAT IT WAS TO WORK!~~

II. DAVID WAS A MAN OF FAITH!

verse 34, "And David said unto Saul, my servant kept fathers ~~shame~~!

verse 32, "And David said to Saul, Let no man's heart fail because of him: thy servant will go and fight with this Philistine."

young people in this country is the fact that we have failed in teaching them to bear responsibility. I believe David was a man of faith because he had seen it in his dad and mom

We are creating a society who is dependent on its Dad is your son is gonna be a man of faith, or is he going to grow up to be self-righteous, and critical? headed for economic collapse!

(Monkey see, monkey do)

One of the greatest injustices you can deal your child is had them everything on a silver platter!

III. DAVID WAS NOT EASILY DISCOURAGED!

C. We're raising girls who can't even cook, or can't hold a gun. In verse 33, "And Saul said to David, Thou art notable to go against this Philistine to fight with him? For thou art but a youth, and he a man of war. Some of his men have said, 'Monkey see, monkey do'."

understand, David was probably 16 or 17 years old and the king of Israel is telling him that he will never be able to perform the task ahead of him! the buttons on a Nintendo game!

God helps to teach our sons to work again, and maybe, it will carry over into the church!

C.

Jesse taught David to Work!

V. DAVID WAS ANOINTED!

A. verse 34-37, "And David said unto Saul, Th~~s~~ervant

Kept his father's sheep, and there came a lion, and a bear, and took a lamb out of the flock: 35) And I went out after him, and smote him, and delivered it out of his mouth: and when he arose against me, I caught him by his beard, and smote him, and slew him." 36) Thy servant slew both the lion and the bear: and this uncircumcised Philistine shall be as one of them seeing he hath defied the armies of the living God. 37) And David said moreover, The Lord that delivered me out of the paw of the lion, and out of the paw of the bear, he will, deliver me out of the hand of this Philistine. And Saul said unto David, Go, and the Lord be with thee."

He refused to rely on anything else!

verse 38, 39 "And Saul armed David with his armor, and he put a helmet of brass upon his head; also he armed him with a coat 39) And David girded his sword upon his armor and he assayed to go; for he had not proved it. And David said unto Saul, I cannot go with these; for I have not proved them. And David put them off him."

Has your boy ever seen you anointed to do anything? He needs to!!!

B. I believe David seen an anointing on his father's life!

You may not agree with me on Jesse being anointed, but remember he molded a king at his house! He raised a son of "Thorn it was said, "He is a man after God's own heart!"

VI. DAVID WAS NOT AFRAID OF THE BATTLE!

verse 40-51 A.

B. Brother we're in the fight of our lives, and should Jesus tarry our kids are going to have to know how to wage a spiritual warfare

C. I believe that David's spirit to fight the enemies of Israel, was at least in part the spirit of his natural father Jesse.

The reason I believe that is the fact that when David got to the battlefield he immediately recognized the enemy!

- D. Let's quit raising sissy's and cowards, and begin raising some young people who are not afraid to do battle for God!

VII. NOTICE SAULS WORDS! VERSE 55-58!

Can this be said of your boy? Why Not? Could it have something to ~~do~~ with you?
